HMMT Monthly Contest

Terms of Use

By submitting solutions and/or problems to the HMMT Monthly Contest, you agree to grant the Harvard-MIT Math Tournament (HMMT) exclusive rights to use them, in whole or in part, and possibly with modifications, in future editions of and in promotional materials for the HMMT monthly contest, as well as for other contests, programs, or promotions organized by HMMT. You also agree that having your solutions and/or problems used by HMMT does not make you a member of HMMT’s staff or problem-writing committee and does not change your relationship with HMMT in any way. Solutions and/or problems, if used by HMMT for any purpose, will be attributed to the competitor who submits them (for example, by inclusion of the competitor’s name in parentheses before the solution or the problem statement), unless you explicitly denote in the text of your solutions and/or problems that you would prefer to remain anonymous.
